

Small Luxury Hotels of the World™ (SLH)

Be our guest.

At Small Luxury Hotels of the World™ (SLH), we pride ourselves on our ever growing portfolio of small, independent hotels. With over 520 hotels in more than 70 countries, the variety of the individual hotels and the experiences that they offer is exceptional. Our newest member hotels come from both SLH's core destinations such as Italy, France, the USA and the Caribbean, and exciting new markets including the Philippines, Bali and China.

What it all amounts to is an exceptional level of choice for our guests. A greater choice of destinations, a greater number, style and type of hotel within those destinations and a greater variety of memorable experiences offered by those hotels. The overall experience is different – we'd say better – too. Because SLH hotels are small and independent, they have their own personality and a warmth of service that is harder to find in larger properties – plus, the owner is often on site to give his or her idiosyncratic take on the local culture. So whether you're looking for a perfect honeymoon experience, knockout family villa, shopping trip to die for or an unforgettable Michelin starred feast, SLH is the place to start.

And with so many available right here on your doorstep, your next trip is closer than you think. Stay in a luxury hotel to tour storybook landscapes and indulge in cutting-edge urban culture. Spirit-soaring mountains, stately baroque palaces and deserted islands are yours to explore. Whether you want to visit bustling and cultural cities, taste gourmet food or enjoy the peaceful surrounds in a spa resort, we have every option to suit your needs.

What's more, we will soon be launching "Private Residences" by SLH, which will showcase some of the world's finest, small, luxury villas, ski chalets, lodges and yachts all available for personal use. Enjoy private family holidays, exclusive birthday parties or ultra romantic getaways in truly high-class style!

You can also enjoy room upgrades, continental breakfasts and other exclusive offers and benefits when you join The Club of Small Luxury Hotels of the World™...and it's free to join! The more you stay, the better the benefits – you can even get free nights on us.
